

LA CALERA

DUCK AND PERDIZ SHOOTING

$1290/night per person

Included: round-trip airport transfers, all meals, including beer, wine and cocktails, single-room accommodations when possible, all services of professional guides and Argentine hunting permit.

Not included: commercial air travel, Argentine gun permits or gun rental ($80/day), shotgun shells ($19/box), gratuities, and miscellaneous purchases.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

A valid passport is required to enter Argentina. A visa is not required.

TAKING GUNS

The process for taking shotguns to Argentina has become more difficult and we strongly suggest hunters plan to use one of the lodge's very fine semi-automatic Beretta shotguns. Of course, the lodge provides backups and cleans all guns after each outing. Hunters taking guns will encounter lengthy delays at Customs in Argentina and will have to secure Consular permits (for semi-autos) from regional Argentine Consulates in the U.S., which can be a time-consuming process.

SHELLS/GUN RENTAL

Payment for your shells can be made with cash or a personal check, and will be handled as you depart. Traveler's Checks or credit cards are not accepted. The current cost for shells is $19/box and gun rental is $80/day. THESE PRICES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE.

AIRLINE SCHEDULING

Many excellent carriers, such as American, Delta, United Airlines, LATAM, and Aerolineas Argentinas offer flight service to Buenos Aires, Argentina from Dallas/Fort Worth, New York, Miami, Atlanta, or Los Angeles. Most flights depart the U. S. in the evening and arrive Argentina early to late morning the next day.

Rod & Gun Resources will be happy to assist in arranging your air travel, or you are welcome to purchase tickets on your own.

CLIMATE/CLOTHING

Drab-colored apparel is important for duck hunts---camo, khaki with greens/browns. A nice touch at the lodge is they provide good-quality boot-foot waders in various sizes, so you don't have to hassle with transporting them. Light rain gear (camo or brown) is always a must.

For perdiz, take well-broken-in hunting boots, along with traditional upland hunting clothes. Don't take clothes that are super bright, like blaze orange. The perdiz will run more. Just take a bright hat, so your hunting partner is sure to see you. Snake protection is not necessary. Hip Boots will suffice for duck hunting, waders are not necessary.

Temperatures are usually quite mild, ranging from colder days of 30-50 degrees up to fall-like days of 50s to 70s. Dressing in layers is best.

Evening wear in all areas will be very informal---whatever is most comfortable, including hunting clothes if you wish. The only need for coat and tie is at sophisticated restaurants in Buenos Aires.

OTHER ITEMS TO INCLUDE

- Shooting safety glasses—yellow for dark days, dark for sun
- Thin, soft leather shooting gloves or adhesive tape to protect hands and fingers while loading and firing
- Shell bag or vest
- Ear plugs for protection while shooting
- Shoulder pad recoil reduction device (optional)
- Camera or video camera with extra battery
- Small container of bug repellent
- Light raincoat (brown, green, camo, etc.)
- Small backpack or field bag
- Copy of passport—packed separately
- Multi-tool or pocketknife
- Reading glasses
- Toiletry items and prescription drugs
- Zip-lock bag or case to protect camera
- Reading material
- Lip balm
- Clock and flashlight (cell phone)
- Garbage bags for dirty laundry

BAG LIMITS/GAME TRANSPORT

We want you to enjoy your hunt but also consider that these resources need to be preserved for generations to come. La Calera has a limit of 7 boxes of shells per shooter/per day on ducks and a limit of 8-10 perdiz per shooter/per hunt. It has long been legal to bring back birds for personal consumption, but since around 2007, more and more of the international airlines departing from Buenos Aires refuse to allow the birds/meat to be checked onto the planes. In the current climate, we consider it unlikely any hunters will succeed in getting birds on their flights home, so we suggest clients do not make the attempt.

TIME

When we are on Daylight Savings Time here in the U.S., Argentina is Eastern Time plus one hour (it's later in Argentina). The remainder of the year they are Eastern Time plus two hours.

PHONE SERVICE/WI-FI

La Calera has Wi-Fi and good cell phone service.

ELECTRIC CURRENT

220 volts; a standard converter and European adapter for two-pronged plug should work fine.

COCKTAILS

The lodge provides a good quality, but limited bar, along with good beer and wine. Guests are welcome to bring their own favorite brand of liquor.

MEDICAL EVACUATION/TRIP CANCELLATION INSURANCE

From minor medical issues to life-threatening situations, Global Rescue's critical services have been there when they were needed most. Outdoorsmen have trusted Global Rescue's medical and security travel services since 2004. Global Rescue memberships start at $119 and feature the following benefits:

- Medical evacuation services to your home country hospital of choice
- Field Rescue services from the point of injury or illness
- 24/7 access to board-certified physicians, clinicians and specialists from the Johns Hopkins Emergency Medicine
- Division of Special Operations

Additionally, Global Rescue and IMG have created one of the industry's most complete travel insurance products, integrating Global Rescue's advisory and evacuation services with the financial protection of a comprehensive travel insurance program. Signature Travel Insurance guarantees that a trip is covered no matter what happens, and features the following highlights:

- CANCEL-FOR-ANY-REASON BENEFIT
- Trip cancellation insured up to $100,000
- Up to $2,500 for lost luggage/baggage delay
- $100,000 emergency medical/dental coverage

Rod & Gun Resources recommends a Global Rescue Membership with Signature Travel Insurance for your next trip. Visit <http://www.globalrescue.com/rodandgun/> or call 617-459-4200 or 617-210-8171 for more information.

GRATUITIES

Gratuities for lodge and field staff are not included in hunt cost, and we suggest around $100 total per day per shooter as a general guideline. This will be distributed by the outfitters to luggage handlers, pick-up boys, and lodge or hotel staff. Camouflage caps, shirts, or other shooting-related items are also appreciated by younger bird boys as an extra tip.

Gratuities to hotel staff and at restaurants in Buenos Aires are not included; the standard restaurant tip is 10-15%.

LANGUAGE

Spanish is the national language, although English is spoken in most shops and restaurants.

IN BUENOS AIRES

Shopping: Most shops are generally open all day to 7 p.m. on weekdays and until 1 p.m. on Saturdays. Florida Street (Calle Florida) is for pedestrians only and is lined with many attractive shops. One example is Mundo del Cuero (World of Leather) which houses two dozen leather goods merchants.

Restaurants: The restaurant environment in Buenos Aires is very diverse and dynamic. We suggest that you consult with your transfer agent or hotel concierge for recommendations or assist with reservations for any restaurant. You should plan on eating a little later than you may be used to in the U. S.—many Argentines don't eat dinner until 10 p.m., and most restaurants do not begin serving dinner until 8:00 p.m.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Check the expiration date on your passport to be sure it is valid for travel. Some countries require that the passport is valid for as much as one year from your date of entry. And, again, take a photocopy of the photo page of the passport, in case you lose the original.
- Always take a raincoat (in hunting colors) and always take it with you on each outing.
- Always take your passport, airline tickets, medications, camera equipment and valuables in a carry-on such as a backpack or small valise.
- Bring a bandanna for use as a handkerchief and to cover your slightly bald head if you misplace your cap.
- Bring two pairs of sunglasses.

Rod & Gun Resources
(800) 211-4753
www.rodgunresources.com